

Our privacy policy for the "Partner search" service

status: September 15th, 2021

responsible: eclareon GmbH.

Introduction

The service "Partner search" ("Partnersuche") is a password-protected online platform, on which pre-registered and by the ENABLING PV team of eclareon GmbH authorized persons can present themselves and network. There is no legal claim to access the password-protected online platform.

We, eclareon GmbH, are the responsible party in the sense of the European Data Protection Regulation (EU-DSGVO), which decides on the purposes and means of processing personal data.

Our contact details: eclareon GmbH, Albrechtstr. 22, 10117 Berlin, Tel: +49 30 8866740-0, germany@eclareon.com. With this privacy policy, we inform about the data processing within the scope of this service "partner search". The use of the service is free of charge.

Necessity to provide personal data for registration and use of the service

The provision of certain personal data for participation in the service is not required by law but is necessary to achieve the purpose of the service, which is networking in a password-protected space.

Before entering this space, personal data (E-mail address, name, organisation name, organisation fields of activity and language for communication) must be specified, so that the ENABLING PV team can check the request. Without these data we are not able to enter a user relationship with you for the "Partner search" service.

During registration and further use of the service in the password-protected space, we will inform you during the input process if the provision of certain personal data is required for the respective function or application ("mandatory field"). The failure to provide mandatory data will result in the deny of the relevant function or application of the service.

Processing of personal data

The legal basis for this processing of personal data is Art. 6 I b) EU-DSGVO. We process the personal data only insofar as to be able to provide the service "Partner search" with its functions.

We, eclareon GmbH, operator of the service "Partner search", do not have access to the passwords of the Users and do not view the communication between individual Users of the service "Partner search".

We, eclareon GmbH, receive the following data from you directly after registration when providing it in the protected online portal:

- profile data (e.g. name, organisation name, worker position, organisation type, organisation fields of activity, contact options, profile picture)
- posts from you (e.g. messages, group contributions, event participation)

Of the profile data, the following are always and unrestrictedly visible to other Users in the "Partner search" service:

- first name, last name
- job title and organisation name
- organisation type/place: city and country
- language for communication
- e-mail (no mandatory field)
- phone number (no mandatory field)
- website (no mandatory field)

We delete this data irrevocably when you delete your user account.

We use cookies on the website. Functional cookies are also used for this service to save the session during authorization (=when logging in). While you visit and use the service, no additional data is collected from you via tracking or similar.
